

Topics

Heathcliff: how did he develop from rescued child to demon of revenge?

Cathy Earnshaw - victim of passion, or embodiment of cruel selfishness?

“The second generation at Wuthering Heights was ruined by the choices of their parents.” Discuss.

“The setting of the novel reflects the wild passions and turbulent emotions of its characters.” Discuss.

Contrast Wuthering Heights with Thrushcross Grange. Compare their physical differences; the atmosphere of each place; what each represents; the way each place allows certain events to take place...

In what ways is this a Gothic novel? In what ways could it be considered to fit into another genre/s.

Analyse the structure of the novel. Explore the effects of the structure, its advantages and disadvantages, and suggest why Bronte may have strutted it the way she did.

Who are the victims in the novel, and why?

“This novel is an exploration of the relationships between men and women.” Discuss.

Analyse the use of symbolism, metaphor and evocative imagery in the novel.